

Email Security Cloud

2026

Release Notes

Contents

- Introduction on page 2
- What's new? on page 2
- Previous updates on page 2
- Resolved and known issues on page 2

Introduction

This document details product updates and new features added to Forcepoint Email Security Cloud during 2026.

What's new?

Deprecation of Verify and Verify+CN

Verify and Verify+CN are deprecated due to the removal of the TLS Web Client Authentication Extended Key Usage (EKU) from publicly trusted certificates. From 18 May 2026, existing configurations will be automatically downgraded to Encrypt or Encrypt+CN.

Previous updates

For details of new features added, and issues resolved during 2025, 2024, 2023, 2022, 2021, 2020, and 2019, see the Forcepoint Email Security Cloud 2025 Release Notes, Forcepoint Email Security Cloud 2024 Release Notes, Forcepoint Email Security Cloud 2023 Release Notes, Forcepoint Email Security Cloud 2022 Release Notes, Forcepoint Email Security Cloud 2021 Release Notes, Forcepoint Email Security Cloud 2020 Release Notes, Forcepoint Email Security Cloud 2019 Release Notes.

Resolved and known issues

To see the latest list of known and resolved issues for Forcepoint Cloud Email Protection Solutions, see Resolved and known issues for Forcepoint Email Security Cloud - 2025 in the Forcepoint Knowledge Base.

You must log on to the Customer Hub to view the list.

